CREATING WEALTH FROM THE UNSEEN

LENSE 1: CREATING ABUNDANCE

It is important we understand the principle of creating abundance in our lives, organizations, and nations. What you do not see within you or conceive you cannot attain. Abundance has a secret code to unlock it. There is a simple principle upon which abundance of everything hinges on; starting from wealth, success, attainment and even marital bliss. You can create abundance in your trail, the responsibility lies on you.

The concept of creating abundance in your trail will be explained using what I tagged the Software Principle. In a computer, two or more computers look alike in many ways; i.e. the hardware components are basically of very similar features. The differences between one computer and the other depend more on the software installed. Some computers are used merely for basic works such as typing and simple computations while some act as database that serves millions of people or used to drive sophisticated automated machines. The worth of a computer is much depending on the software than the hardware.

In the same light, men are morphologically similar. Each man has one head, two hands, two legs, etc. there is no mark difference between one person and another. They wear similar clothes, eat alike and drink the same kind of wine or water but the output of each life is quite different. While some are producing staggering results that astound the mind of men others are content to live the ordinary life.

To change your life, you have nothing to do with the hardware (physical) component of you but your software component which is your thought; you need to visit your core belief, thinking, frame of mind, ideology and ideals.

In the same light, if you are poor you don't have to struggle to get out of poverty; it doesn't work that way. That's why the burden bearer will not get out of the rut of poverty until he thinks to be rich. No matter how many tons an alaru can carry he cannot become wealthy without engaging his thinking. No wonder a bestselling book: Think and Grow Rich became a close companion of millions who break the limits and become wealthy. When you want to be wealthy and abundantly sustained, you go into your internal configuration; which is your thinking.

What we program in software is what it is potentially capable of delivering and will not do anything outside this programming. You cannot achieve anything remarkable outside the border of your thought of possibility.

Peradventure you accidentally shoot beyond your capacity your thinking capacity will take you back to it's original estate. This is why it's always difficult for lottery winners, sportsmen and inheritors of riches to sustain it. Sudden riches without internal development often prove to be a curse.

Your thinking either inherited or learned has imposed upon you your present limitation or freedom. This is why the people you walk with, your friends and allies have tremendous impact on your thinking because by association you easily approve of them and you live like them because you think like them.

LENSE 2: HOW WEALTH ARE CREATED FROM NOTHING

When you want to create abundance, you move your mind to the end result you want to see. Jump the process, see clearly the end: the beautiful house you want to buy, the sum you want to have in your bank account or the home outlook you want.

Caution: Man is a creative being which makes us higher than the animal world. By creative power, you create your own reality by choice. You can create hell out of heaven or heaven out of hell. Someone's failure could sink him while similar failure can be the stepping stone to another person. The difference is their perception of situation.

Your early life financial woes don't define your future financial experiences. You can change this. Without a dime, you can recreate your financial world as you become stupendously wealthy. Don't you wonder how many children of the poor rose from penury to control immense wealth later in life; examples are Late M.K.O. Abiola of Nigeria and Jack Ma of China. You can rewrite your story by changing your internal reality.

You may not have a dime, that doesn't make you poor. You may not have a thousand naira yet decide on business of a hundreds of million naira. I remember that towards the end of covid-19 I have many financial constraints though I've some money out there but I have short physical cash on me. It was easy to allow the thought of poverty on me but I mount over it the thought of prosperity and abundance in a way I've never done since I was born. The shortfall of Covid-19 made me rethink and scale upward.

As individual, financial challenges can make you or mar you. Some are held bound by such experiences of Covid-19 lockdown and have their narratives changed negatively afterward. I know of a man who was from a very poor background. He said whenever he looked back he never wanted to go back to where he was coming from; so he dedicated every waking day to uphold his strive for a life of prosperity. Today, he is a celebrity and a famous icon in my country.

LENSE 3: A LESSON FOR AFRICAN COUNTRY

African leaders are overwhelmed with the odds that are stacked against them that you can visibly see the resignation of will, purpose and drive to the superpowers of the world. They follow sheepishly the dictates and demands of the advanced economy. They've forgotten that interests of nations are foremost homeward.

Lack of understanding of how wealth is created has earned Africa a rollercoaster experience of up and down dwindling fortunes. Today, average African nation bear crushing yokes of debts. Everyone who moves out of poverty does it consciously and with utmost dedication.

To worsen our situation, our leaders never believed things can change. We need African leaders who will challenge the mental casing of ineptitude, resignation and victimhood that made us beggarly. Don't you think there are things we can do?

Those who have ever come out of poverty do so by believing they can make the change. Africa will continue as destitute until she knows she can transform. But as long as we believe we have the world power as godfathers, we will remain as destitute. Believing in oneself is the basis to success in any endeavour; this includes finances.

The solution to a complex problem is often simple like ABC. Our adaptation to this simple solution will determine whether we will be up and running or not.

LENSE 4: YOU HAVE THE POWER TO CHOOSE

You have the power to choose what you feel, think or accept as your reality, you can choose to see yourself as fabulously blessed and rich; with a lovely home and family and supportive associates.

Choose your reality to support your goal of abundance in the present tense (of now). Once this is done, the mechanical part of your being goes to work to deliver to you a physical evidence of your thinking.

When you dwell on the limitations of today, you will not be able to form a clear goal and objective for yourself; and without a clear objective your life cannot achieve new meaningful experience. Per time, you grow into your new level of thinking and imagination.

Many lives are like the broken record that keeps repeating the same track and stopping at the point of its cracks. This is why some fellow will do so well and will always flounder at a point in their lives. People stop making progress to the degree they accept limitations.

For example if you keep seeing the needs surrounding you, you might be within this frame of experience all your life until you mature enough to adopt the secret code discussed in this manual. It is a hard task to live happy when you are in lack; it is difficult to think and act abundance when bills are mounting. But this is the hard task you must do if you want to trade your present state for a richer tomorrow.

LENSE 5: THE WORKING OF WEALTH CREATION EXPLAINED:

The body goes to where the heart goes. Here is a lucid example, before taking a journey to Lagos, you will first imagine it before you set on the journey; often you don't plan going to Lagos and accidentally see yourself on the way to Kano.

In the same way, if the inner man chart the way to wealth and agreeable to the concept of abundance, then the whole human system will go to work to create abundance as a reward for the thinking of abundance. The thinking of abundance here is not a once in a while wishes, it must be sustained in good or bad weather and it doesn't matter what your physical experiences are.

You become what you sustained long enough in your mind; in your mind trade away poverty thinking for abundance mindset. Remember, a hopeless person is so in his mind and if sustained leads to a wrecked life of frustrations.

I want to cite another example using marriage. We have come to discover that marriages hitting the rock are not often the most afflicted but they are those in which one or both partner(s) lose faith in the mutual cohabitation. Somebody think: If things go wrong, everybody will find his or her way. To such marriage something will often likely go wrong. Then you see other couple go stronger because both or one of the couple have the resolve that no matter what happens, they as couple will go through. It is not your experiences in marriage that gives you joy; you determine whether you will enjoy that marriage.

Abundant mind when sustained long enough create an abundant environment. Man is what he thinks and ponders upon repeatedly.

LET YOUR IMAGINATION CREATE ABUNDANCE FOR YOU IN EVERY AREA OF YOUR LIFE.

LENSE 6: TARGET, GOAL SETTING AND VISUALIZATION

You need to know what you want, then possess the power to actualize it. But more important is the capacity to visualize and knowing within you that you can.

A very important tool for anyone who want to actualize financial freedom is to own capacity to visualize and paint pictures within him or her. This is different from wishful thinking. Instead it's a deliberate meditative process of setting images and designs with congruency and finesse. If you don't know what you want you cannot get it.

Your visualized financial goal should have a target. It's not enough to say: I want to be a millionaire. Instead, you say: At such a time I will have this (named) sum of money.

The next thing is you now juxtapose the different possibilities of making that sum of money. Recently, I set a mark of an exaggerated sum to be earned in the next one year. It seems very large but upon creating a breakdown of possibilities of about five alternatives then I found out the ease of building a billion naira corporation within a decade without breaking a bank.

Yet, without setting a time out to visualize and contemplate I wouldn't know the possibilities. Visualization is the first step of creative inventiveness whether of the material world, technology or money.

In becoming wealthy and financially free, your thinking process is more important than your working process. Mad men work but uncoordinated. Thinking makes your work to have coordination, less cumbersome and reduces wasted energy for a useful outcome. Thinking helps you to maximize return on labour.

Critical thinking helps you to visualize how to sell One million times instead of a thousand times of a commodity.

At this moment, sit back and visualize your matrix of possibilities to achieve a set of financial future. How can you multiply the factors of sales?

Note

Always remember that as you visualize your financial possibilities, there are unachievable dreams per time. Life is like an invisible stairs which you must coordinate with stepwise purpose and pursuit. You don't jump stages of life but you can increase speed.

LENSE 7: DISCRETE PROCESS OF WEALTH FORMULA

Discrete process is a compact or complete process that leads to a particular outcome. You are to sit back and visualize the process that has helped you to make money over time. You might have one or two of such kinds.

Then you're to turn such into your wealth formula and get it multiplied over and over. The onus is on you to create your own wealth formula based on what has made you money before or create a new vista as your potential formula.

Let me explain this, being an author. You can sell few copies of your book and be content with this and on another hand you may design a process of sales around it and multiply it a million times.

You can run a seminar for an organization on leadership and end it there. You can thereafter turn the process of conversion of that single client into a process of sales to capture hundreds of others.

For a country, individuals can export bits of a product oversea. A visionary government may thereafter see potential in it and invest heavily into the exportable products by coordinating the resources together thereby unlocking wealth for the nation.

System of wealth creation is adaptable for nations as it is for individuals.

You've what it takes to start if you can think through.

LENSE 8: SPEED WEALTH

Speed wealth is the principle of repeating the process of wealth quickly over and over again. The speed of repeating this discrete process leads to amassing gargantuan wealth.

Some actions can be multiplied by making contact with influential or famous person. In some instances you employ more hands such as more sales people or increase your marketing and advertisement initiatives.

Whatever you do, that can help you to speed up your rate of wealth creation will worth the effort. This often saves time and production cost.

How can you multiply the process of your wealth? I mean, how you can replicate your success formula in a way that instead of few sales, performance, production, you can arrive at millions of replication.
